Where are you?

- Messages were found in a bottle washed up on a beach between Ten Mile Creek and Arch Rock in the Cape Liptrap Coastal Park, 147 km SE of Torquay.
- This area is quite remote and forms part of a 2-day hike between Cape Liptrap Lighthouse and Venus Bay.
- The bottle was found by Wendy and Darren Jepsen on 21 January 2015 on their 20th Wedding Anniversary. 😊

I don't know who may not know who I am but you have picked up this little now have a small piece of evidence

of my existence
I hope your life has been well and full.

Thank you for rescuing
me from the yuckiness
of the ocean
May the sands of your new glass flow
slowly through your life.
Go peacefully
Speak quietly.
Be happy

Smile more often
